Dr. O. H. CONGAR.

The New Governor For Utah.

Official dispatches, Washington, July 18th, announce the appointments of Hon. Charles Durkee as Governor for Utah, and Hon. W. H. Wallace as Governor for Idaho.

Hon. Charles Durkee is a native of Vermont, from which State he emigrated to Wisconsin when the same was a territory. He located at the city of Kenosha, on Lake Michigan, and engaged in a merchandizing. Afterwards he was elected a Representative to Congress from what was since the Potter-Pryor District. He served but one term as Representative, during which he was known as a long-time, consistent abolitionist, of the Birney school, standing between the Whig and Democratic parties and eschewing both. Subsequently he removed to Dane County, on a farm, and was afterwards elected a Senator of the United States from Wisconsin.

It is a remarkable fact that Mr. Durkee—oh, excuse us, "Governor"—well, that Governor Durkee, though a man of ability, never made a speech through his whole Representative and Senatorial terms. He served with our late Gov. Doty as co-Representative in Congress, and, though the two were wide as the poles in their political creeds at that time, each voted for the other for Speaker, both declining to support the respective candidates of the Whig and Democratic parties.

Governor Durkee is known as a plain, dignified, practical man, about sixty years of age, and of wide integrity and spotless purity of character.

Wisconsin appears to be quite a favorite, in the opinion of the Washington authorities, from which to select Federal officials to rule over the "saintly" constituents of Old Brigham's bogus hierarchy.

RECENT mails brought us copies of the Prescott, Arizona, Miner, the Albuquerque, New Mexico, Press, and the Santa Fe New Mexican. Also a lot of cash subscriptions from Fort Union, Santa Fe and Fort Sumner. As soon as we get our Weekly started, (which will be—well God alone knows when, as some paper and material purchased and put on the plains for here, two months since, haven't yet been even heard from!) our circulation in New Mexico and Arizona will largely increase. But we commenced to speak of something which will nigh escape us in this digression. It is of an eloquent order or address by Gen. J. H. Crockett (formerly of the "California Column," New Mexico) to the Provost Marshals and Guards throughout the Department, on the occasion of ordering the offices abolished, and the "pass" system along the Grande done away with. We extract:

Now that the Army of the so-called Confederate States, which was operating in Texas under the command of Lieut. Gen. Kirby Smith, has surrendered to the forces of the United States, it is practicable and proper to abolish the Passport System throughout the Territory of New Mexico. That system was established for the better security of the people—and for other reasons of a military character growing out of the condition of war into which our country had been needlessly plunging, and through which she was forced to struggle for her existence.

This last condition, happily passed by; and once more the people in the loyal states and territories resume their wonted privileges; while the military power, now that it has saved the country—returns to the status it held in times of peace—that of secondary importance and subordination to the civil authorities. We have presented to the world the sublime spectacle of the finest armies which ever trod the earth, after having preserved the life of the nation, disbanding quietly, and each individual returning peacefully to his home and to the pursuit of private life. These armies were no "retrograde" guards to overawe the people, and to proclaim this or that man as ruler—but armies of intelligent patriots, who, having seen their country past its perils, fell back into the ranks of the people, and, only as men, if the people, with the power of the ballot alone, show their preferences in common with their fellow citizens for those they would see in official position. In these days, thank God! when bayonets and sabres think, the liberties of the people cannot be endangered; and, so long as the school house stands the country need not fear the rise of an usurper. That humble edifice—more potent than armies or fortresses—is the holy sanctuary in which Liberty can dwell without danger, while Cultivated Mind can hold watch and ward over ignorance, and over mere Physical Force however skillfully directed as an Unthinking Machine.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH!

(To Denver.)

New York, July 28th.
The Tribune's special says, Maj. Gen. Dodge has been assigned to the general command of all the U. S. forces serving in Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, Montana and that portion of Dakota lying west and south of Missouri river.

Fort Laramie, Neb., July 27th.
[After giving the particulars of the Platte Bridge Indian fight, which we published here last week, the dispatch to Denver adds:—]

Order of the Powder river columns is now en route to join the force at Platte Bridge, which is moving of the r of the Indians, and holding them in check until reinforcements arrive, when another fight will take place beyond a doubt.

All the troops intended for the Indian expedition would have been in the field long ago, had it not been for the rascally contractors failing to deliver supplies according to the terms of their contracts.

Junction, Col., July 29th.
Thirty Indians made their appearance upon this side of the Platte about 10 a. m. yesterday, and drove off six beef cattle, and six mules, and two horses, near Fremont's Orchard. Their owners came to Camp Wardwell and reported to Capt. Kinney, in command of Post. He started immediately with a detachment of eighteen men of the First Colorado, struck the trail seventeen miles from this post, and followed it until dark, when the horses giving out and the Indians having several hours the start, Capt. Kinney returned. The appearance of the trail would indicate that the Indians were in large force. Main body is supposed to be on Lodge Pole Creek.

Valley Station, July 29.
The line was cut with a hatchet or axe, and a lot of line taken away, six miles west. We will probably hear something soon from there. I just heard that the Indians had captured eight soldiers' horses, but there is only one man killed as far as known. I am expecting scouts in from the East soon when we may hear more. They are all under arms here. We have about 75 men here in all. The man that was killed below here three miles was a citizen—think he was a pilgrim. About 30 soldiers went up the road from here an hour ago.

New York, July 24.
The Herald's special says the municipal election at Fredericksburg last week resulted in the entire success of one of the most bitter and tyrannical secessionists. The elections in Virginia afford little encouragement to hope for early settlement of the difficulties, which suppression and armed rebellion has left, to be conciliated wherever opportunity offers. The citizens of that State manifest a disposition to retain, or place in power those who are most obnoxious for complicity in the rebellion.

It is understood that the guerrilla Mosely intends to run as a candidate for Congress.

During the progress, recently in the District Court at New Orleans, of proceedings for the confiscation of Sidel's estate, claims for nearly $100,000, advanced him on a mortgage, were presented by a Paris banking house. Judge Durrell decided that at the time the notes were made Sidel was a notorious enemy of the United States. His property, therefore, belonged under the confiscation laws, to the Government, and the claims could not be allowed.

It is understood that John Minor Botts will soon issue an address to the people of Virginia, urging them to vote for Negro suffrage, as the only hope of the State for its re-admission into the Union, on terms of equality with other States.

New York, July 28th.
The Tribune special says a successful Mexican news state two imperial cavalry regiments had deserted to Ortega, and that he was daily tendered the services of large numbers of Mexican officers, coming from points in possession of the French.

It is further stated that Maximilian had contracted with foreign speculators for the introduction of a large number of negroes who are to be held in slavery for ten years.

The Times special says Jeff Davis' health is much improved.

Gen. Joe Johnston has applied for pardon, which will probably be granted. It is said that he did all in his power to bring the rebellion to a close long before it became evident that it was in a collapsed condition.

New York, July 28.
The Tribune's special says that during June over two thousand claims for prize money were filed at the fourth auditor's office, and nearly three million dollars distributed. A large amount still remains.

New York, July 29.
The Herald's special says another heavy instalment of applications for pardon were received at the Attorney General's office to-day. Among the number is that of the rebel Brig. Gen. W. H. F. Lee.

The Tribune special says the special object of Gen. Dick Taylor, in visiting Washington, is to interview the President for an interview with Jeff Davis. He succeeded in seeing the President yesterday, but received no definite answer and was requested to call again.

Mormon Feeling in Idaho.

From an interesting contribution to the Boise Statesman, of the 3d, we give room to the following: to show to Congress, the Cabinet and sovereign America in general, the "indications" and the animus of the Polygamic Power in this and other portions of these territories. Read it, thoughtfully and to the end:

FROM SOUTH IDAHO.
Soda Springs, Oneida Co., Ill. ho, }
July 24, 1883.

Editor Statesman:—Although you learn much of the doing and feeling of the "Saints" through the columns of the dainties and patriotic Edette, yet there are some things outside which may not be so familiar to them—situated in that busy "hive" of old Brigham's subjects. One I, as is well known, is geographical contiguity to Utah, and the flow of immigration from the Old World which has been pouring into Salt Lake City for the past ten years has necessarily caused a wave, which like the circles occasioned by a pebble on the surface of a lake, moves off in every direction seeking an equilibrium. Thus Utah has been settled, and even the southern portion of this country is inhabited by this class, who claim to be in Utah, and have even organized portions of Idaho into counties under the statutes of Utah.

While all this has been going on the people of Idaho have been asleep, and although a camp at this place was garrisoned with United States troops during the progress of these events, yet nothing was known or done by those in command, or any measure taken by those at the head of the civil department of the Territory to organize and develop this country. The present Acting Governor, I am glad to learn, has taken the necessary steps to bring this portion of Idaho into its appropriate notice and importance. The Recorder and Sheriff have been here some little time awaiting the appointment of county commissioners, which I am informed have been received. We may now look for a speedy organization although some difficulty is apprehended in establishing the southern boundary line, which is the boundary between Idaho and Utah. It is a question with the people whether there ever was a boundary survey between Oregon and Utah, and whether the line can be defined between the conflicting counties other than by an order of the General Government. We contend the counties can settle the line between themselves, if they will. The question is whether the Mormons will agree to any line that places them in Idaho. It is time that citizens of Idaho cease sending representatives to the Utah Legislature and paying taxes to the dynasty of Brigham. Idaho has abundant use for all the revenue of her citizens.

The people of Franklin, who claim to be in Cache county, Utah, are very much exasperated at the idea of being in Idaho, and from what I can learn are making ample preparations to forcibly resist any attempt to an enforcement of the laws of Idaho. The purchasing of arms and munitions, and the regular or irregular drills seem to be their all-absorbing theme. Recently a report has gained circulation among them that rather disturbs their equilibrium, and makes their valor turn white. They have the news that there are on the way to Utah fifteen thousand soldiers for the purpose of fighting them. The old adage that "a guilty conscience needs no accuser" must have some truth. They are wrongfully and illegally cherishing an institution and advocating rebellious doctrines which they know cannot much longer be unnoticed; and thus they write under the prospect of the end they see approaching. Polygamy, with all its hateful, degrading and degenerating consequences, must cease, and the sooner the better. It is a blot on the fair face of the United States Government, scarcely less black and damnable than the African cancer just cured by a four years' war, at a sacrifice of millions of treasure and rivers of blood. It is almost incredible, the ignorance of the masses, yet, to know the workings of the system, it is easily understood. To-day, as in all ages past, ignorance is the foundation upon which monarchies are reared. Kingdoms and empires are but the result of general ignorance. The Czar of Russia, the King of Prussia and the Emperor of Austria, are no more potent than Brigham Young. A monarchy existing in the geographical centre of the republican United States is strange, indeed—xxx, probably to the greater portion of our thirty millions of people. But such is the case. And this monarchy, consisting of less than one hundred thousand, bids defiance to the Government. The doctrines taught by the hell-sentinel apostles in, if they can wipe out the United States, if they undertake to disturb them. The question is, are these things to last? We hope, in the name of a righteous God, in the name of an outraged people, that the end is close at hand!

Notwithstanding all is quiet now, it is hard to say when there may be a bloody change. It is but a short distance to the country of Luther's Cut-off, where hostile bands roam at pleasure. If it is true that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, then companies of soldiers (cavalry) could be stationed here to great advantage.

ARIZONA NEWS.—A letter dated at Camp No. 28 Williamson's Valley, Arizona Territory, June 28th, says: Please announce the death of Whitfield S. Somerville, Company I, 7th California Volunteers. He was from French Gulch. He shot himself accidentally on the morning of June 25th, while on the march, the ball entering just below the left breast, passing upward through the heart, and coming out at the back of the right shoulder. He fell backwards, exclaiming "Oh, God!" and expired instantly.

We expected to reach Fort Whipple, at Prescott, the capital of Arizona, tomorrow or next day at most. We have been on the march from Drum Barracks at San Pedro, since May 25th. We had one man shoot himself through the hand and wrist, and had to leave him at Camp Cady, and we lost one in the mountains this side of Fort Mohave. He has probably perished.

THE DAILY UNION-EDETTE.
SATURDAY MORNING, AUG. 12, 1883.

THE NEW GOVERNOR FOR UTAH.
Official dispatches, Washington, July 18th, announce the appointments of Hon. Charles Durkee as Governor for Utah, and Hon. W. H. Wallace as Governor for Idaho.

Hon. Charles Durkee is a native of Vermont, from which State he emigrated to Wisconsin when the same was a territory. He located at the city of Kenosha, on Lake Michigan, and engaged in a merchandizing. Afterwards he was elected a Representative to Congress from what was since the Potter-Pryor District. He served but one term as Representative, during which he was known as a long-time, consistent abolitionist, of the Birney school, standing between the Whig and Democratic parties and eschewing both. Subsequently he removed to Dane County, on a farm, and was afterwards elected a Senator of the United States from Wisconsin.

It is a remarkable fact that Mr. Durkee—oh, excuse us, "Governor"—well, that Governor Durkee, though a man of ability, never made a speech through his whole Representative and Senatorial terms. He served with our late Gov. Doty as co-Representative in Congress, and, though the two were wide as the poles in their political creeds at that time, each voted for the other for Speaker, both declining to support the respective candidates of the Whig and Democratic parties.

Governor Durkee is known as a plain, dignified, practical man, about sixty years of age, and of wide integrity and spotless purity of character.

Wisconsin appears to be quite a favorite, in the opinion of the Washington authorities, from which to select Federal officials to rule over the "saintly" constituents of Old Brigham's bogus hierarchy.

RECENT mails brought us copies of the Prescott, Arizona, Miner, the Albuquerque, New Mexico, Press, and the Santa Fe New Mexican. Also a lot of cash subscriptions from Fort Union, Santa Fe and Fort Sumner. As soon as we get our Weekly started, (which will be—well God alone knows when, as some paper and material purchased and put on the plains for here, two months since, haven't yet been even heard from!) our circulation in New Mexico and Arizona will largely increase. But we commenced to speak of something which will nigh escape us in this digression. It is of an eloquent order or address by Gen. J. H. Crockett (formerly of the "California Column," New Mexico) to the Provost Marshals and Guards throughout the Department, on the occasion of ordering the offices abolished, and the "pass" system along the Grande done away with. We extract:

Now that the Army of the so-called Confederate States, which was operating in Texas under the command of Lieut. Gen. Kirby Smith, has surrendered to the forces of the United States, it is practicable and proper to abolish the Passport System throughout the Territory of New Mexico. That system was established for the better security of the people—and for other reasons of a military character growing out of the condition of war into which our country had been needlessly plunging, and through which she was forced to struggle for her existence.

This last condition, happily passed by; and once more the people in the loyal states and territories resume their wonted privileges; while the military power, now that it has saved the country—returns to the status it held in times of peace—that of secondary importance and subordination to the civil authorities. We have presented to the world the sublime spectacle of the finest armies which ever trod the earth, after having preserved the life of the nation, disbanding quietly, and each individual returning peacefully to his home and to the pursuit of private life. These armies were no "retrograde" guards to overawe the people, and to proclaim this or that man as ruler—but armies of intelligent patriots, who, having seen their country past its perils, fell back into the ranks of the people, and, only as men, if the people, with the power of the ballot alone, show their preferences in common with their fellow citizens for those they would see in official position. In these days, thank God! when bayonets and sabres think, the liberties of the people cannot be endangered; and, so long as the school house stands the country need not fear the rise of an usurper. That humble edifice—more potent than armies or fortresses—is the holy sanctuary in which Liberty can dwell without danger, while Cultivated Mind can hold watch and ward over ignorance, and over mere Physical Force however skillfully directed as an Unthinking Machine.

Local and Miscellaneous.

Religious services by Rev. N. McLeod to-morrow at the usual place and hour.

Mrs. Thompson, and daughter, of Idaho, and one Thos. Millett of San Francisco, were lost on the "Brother Jonathan," additional to former list.

Monday night next has been fixed for that Grand Church Sociable, &c., by the friends and attendants of Rev. Mr. McLeod a Church. It will be a large and pleasant party, for the interests of true civilization in this Mormon Israel.

A letter from Gotham, England, to the Chicago Journal says: Everybody is going mad over silver mining in Nevada Territory, and new companies are being formed almost daily. Mr. Morse, United States Consul at London, has accepted the chairmanship of one of the principal ones.

INDIAN REMOVAL.—There is a report current about town, that the Investigating Committee have completed terms of peace with the Indians, and Gen. Connor has resigned his command in disgust. We don't believe a word of it. It certainly needs confirmation.—Denver Gazette, 28th ult.

We don't want anybody killed, but yet are thankful that the red devils have struck the Platte at this particular time, if they meant to commit depredations in this season. Senator Doolittle and party are to day near the scene of their outrages, and who knows but that an illustration of their devilry may have a beneficial effect on the Congressional party and cause them practically to realize what they know so little of except in theory.—Denver News, 23rd ult.

CHINESE THEATRE, SAN FRANCISCO.—There is a Chinese dramatic company, composed of sixty, and sometimes more, performers, whose chief patrons are almost exclusively Chinese. A very singular part of their performance consists in playing all day and night—the audience entering and departing at all hours, as best suits their convenience and taste for enjoyment. It takes a week or ten days to finish playing one of their pieces.

DRAMATIC CAENIVAL.—By reference to the Theatre Programme for this evening, published on this page, it will be seen that an entertainment of especial splendor is in store for the immense audience who will of course be present on the interesting occasion. Note the powerful and pleasing casts. Our morning papers having to go to press the previous evening, interfere with our wish to chronicle the success of Mrs. Hayne and the whole Potter Troupe last night, thus throwing the theatrical "reviews" a day behind.

Mr. J. M. STARK, the Nevada actor, is playing at the Howard Atheneum, Boston. It is said by the Boston dailies that he has met with a cordial reception. He is a man of commanding figure, has ex resive features, and a good voice. His conception of character is intelligent, his rendition original and somewhat peculiar, his gestures and manner of the western school, though his declamation has not the objectionable features of mouthing and sound and fury signifying nothing, which usually characterizes that style of acting.

YOU "CAWNT" TELL!—A Colorado soldier, writing from Fort Lyon to the Denver News, asks an answer to a delicate question thusly:

Being a member of Co. E, Vet. Battalion 1st Colorado Cavalry, and hearing Col. Chivington and the men who were under his command, at the Battle of Sand Creek, so much censured for killing squaws, and fearing that I may have to be on the "war path," this summer, and wishing to escape the condemnation of the public, I would respectfully request that some one friendly to the "poor red brethren," let us know, through your paper, by what means a warrior may be distinguished from his squaw. I have been an old Indian of different tribes, and I think it an impossibility to distinguish one sex from the other at gun-shot distance!

Yours, and friendly to the whites. SPACES.

THE CITY OF VIRGINIA, (Gold Hill included.) Nevada, is frequently spoken of as having "fizzled," or as a disappointed silver digger said—"the bottom has fell plum clean out of it." But, be that as it may, it still deserves the credit of having the three best daily newspapers, prospering in that place, which towns ten times its size and years can show throughout the States. The Enterprise, Union and News are admirable daily journals, far ahead of anything of the kind in such cities as Pittsburg, Albany, Buffalo, Detroit, Columbus, Cleveland, Hartford, Providence and provincial places east. With the poor facilities from the mails and telegraphic, some dailies of the west are wonderful in enterprise. By the way, speaking of the Virginia, Nevada, "Territorial Enterprise," why don't it, now that they're a State, drop the "Territorial" title?

The Redemption of Utah.

The Union Vedette of Salt Lake. Is a thorn in the side of Mormonism. It is a daily journal published under the guns of Camp Douglas and the "Destroying Angels" are not disposed to molest the audacious little sheet. It is the enemy of polygamy, and the effect of its broadsides upon the Tabernacle are beginning to be seen and felt. Were the Federal troops to be withdrawn from Salt Lake the Vedette would not long be permitted to assault the sacred symbols of Mormonism and irreverently refer to the shortcomings of the anointed dignitaries of the church; but the boys in blue are not to be withdrawn, and the Vedette gives promise of having entered upon a long life of usefulness. The garrison at Camp Douglas is to be increased rather than diminished, and the "Saints" are considerably exercised at the prospect of a more formidable military display than is at present maintained within sight of the "sacred city."

But the Vedette and its supporters do not hope to redeem Utah from the rule of the polygamists by military force. All they desire is protection against the violence of Brigham and his minions, and the privilege of exposing the hypocrisy of the Mormon leaders and the moral rottenness of their rule. They are making converts rapidly, and through the instrumentality of those determined missionaries we expect to see the doctrine of polygamy abandoned by the Church before two years.

ITEMS IN BRIEF.—There was a terrible rain storm and flood in Leavenworth, Kansas, on the evening of the 20th ult. Delaware street was a miniature lake. Three Mile Creek had burst its banks and submerged the bottom streets, houses, homes and tenants. Several houses were swept away from their foundations. The number of persons drowned is said to be one hundred.

Grasshoppers are spoken of by the Colorado press.

A. M. Cassaday, Esq., a lawyer of Denver, formerly from Oskaloosa, Iowa, and recently a petroleum prospector on the Arkansas, near Canon City, close to the base of Pike's Peak, has been to New York and effected a sale of a half-interest in some developed and undeveloped oil wells, for $500,000. A company was organized and have parties working on the claims this season.

A lucky speculator in "feet" from Boise, Idaho, who has been to the Great Metropolis and sold a lot of claims for a hundred thousand, returned here by yesterday's coach from the east, en route to Idaho. He wears a diamond pin which has the most colossal stone within its setting that we ever saw. It must have cost some six or seven thousand. Quite a small piece of "pure carbon," though, for a few thousand ton of "rich quartz rock"—is the lode. The fortunate gentleman's name is Mr. Wilson Waddingham.

From the west—U. H. W. Crocker, Mr. Duncan.

To the west—D. C. Porter.

PER OVERLAND STAGE LINE.

From the east—Wilson Waddingham, A. R. Wright, J. M. Allen, J. A. Middleton.

To the east—Col. Doty, Mrs. Gov. Doty, Hon. W. A. Carter, C. L. Rutter, Geo. Buffett.

NEW YORK AND OREGON G. & S. M. Co.—Mr. G. Collier Robbins returned from New York by the steamship Brother Jonathan, bringing with him from the Pacific Foundry at San Francisco, a quartz mill of thirty stamps, together with two large boilers and engines of sixty horse power, purchased at a cost of $32,000 by the New York and Oregon Gold and Silver Mining Company, a corporation of $250,000 capital stock, paid in, organized in New York City, for the development of the ledges of Idaho, of which company Mr. Robbins is Superintendent.—Idaho World.

ALL SORTS OF ITEMS.

"Just as the bee collects her sweets,
From every shrub and flower she meets,
From many a source we draw
We give, tho' not the whole as new."

Freedom.

Of olden Freedom on the heights,
The thunder breaking at her feet;
Above her shook the starry lights;
She heard the thunders meet.
Within her place she did rejoice,
Sift gathered in her prophet mind,
But fragments of her mighty voice
Came rolling on the wind.
Then steep she down through tower and
And
To mingle with the human race,
And part by part to man revealed
The fullness of her face.
Gave mother of majestic works,
From her island-gazing down,
Woe, god-like, grasps the tripple forks,
And, king-like, wears the crown.
Her open eyes desire the truth,
The wisdom of a thousand years
Is in them. May perpetual youth
Keep dry their lights from tea;
That her fair form may stand and shine,

WHEN you are in danger from external enemies, look out. When the peril is from your own unbridled passions, look in.

THE banisters of the grand staircase of Baron Rot-child's new mansion, in Piccadilly, are made of gold and platinum.

IT is singular how pious new clothes make people. For a whole month after, they are at church three times a day.

THE real object of education is to give children resources that will endure as long as life endures; habits that will ameliorate, not destroy; occupations that will render sickness tolerable, solitude, pleasant, age venerable, life more dignified and useful, and death less terrible.

A GENTLEMAN dining with a friend one day, was struck by the earnestness with which one of the little girls regarded him, and taking her on his knee, he caressed her. "Please, Sir," said she, "tell me, what's in the house next to yours; I'd like to see it?" "Tell me, my dear, why you wish to know?" "Cause I heard mamma say that you was next door to a brnte."

United States 7.30 LOAN. Third Series. $230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent interest per annum, known as the 7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1885, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into Gold bearing Bonds.

The Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from County, and Municipal taxation which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent, amounts to
One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents per day on a $100 note.
Ten cents " " " $500 "
Twenty cents " " " $1,000 "
One Dollar " " " $5,000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. The notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Series Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coins at 6 per cent, instead of 7.30 in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency on July 15th, at the time when the subscription is made, and the delivery of the notes of this third series of the seven thirties will commence on the first of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in gold be available, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with $ x per cent in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent, in currency. This is

The only Loan in the MARKET.

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230,000,000 of the Loan authorized by Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it being absorbed will all be subscribed for within sixty days when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case in closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of country may be offered facilities for taking the Loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which the receipts are ordered.
